

Revelation 19 v 6-10

I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude,
like the sound of many waters
and like the sound of mighty thunder-peals, crying out, 'Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns.
Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory,
for the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and his bride has made herself ready;
to her it has been granted to be clothed with fine linen, bright and pure' – for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.
And the angel said to me, 'Write this:
Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'
And he said to me, 'These are true words of God.'
Then I fell down at his feet to worship him,
but he said to me, 'You must not do that!
I am a fellow-servant with you and your comrades who hold the testimony of Jesus.
Worship God!
For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.'

John 2: 1-11

There was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.
Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.
When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.'
And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me?
My hour has not yet come.'
His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'
Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.
Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.'
And they filled them up to the brim.
He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.'
So they took it.
When the steward tasted the water that had become wine,
and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew),
the steward called the bridegroom and said to him,
'Everyone serves the good wine first,
and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk.
But you have kept the good wine until now.'
Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
